Vicenzaoro Jewelry Fair, Hall 7

The Aaron Shum Jewelry Group was founded in 1985. It began as a small jewelry workshop with only a handful of staff. Having successfully weathered the storms of the past decades, Aaron Shum Jewelry flourished into a successful multi-national company with 1000 employees worldwide.

After years of well-targeted strategic marketing, the Group has gained international recognition as one of the leading world-wide jewelry manufacturers and has progressively branched out across the globe winning international acclaim for their exceptional quality and craftsmanship.

Equipped with state of the art technology, the Company is ISO9001:2000 certified and UL audited. Their production premises employ hundreds of highly skilled craftsmen and is located in Shunde, Guangdong Province of China. The Group produces its own designs under the same roof to ensure achievement of flawless quality for each individual piece.
